SKETCHES
BY SEYMOUR.

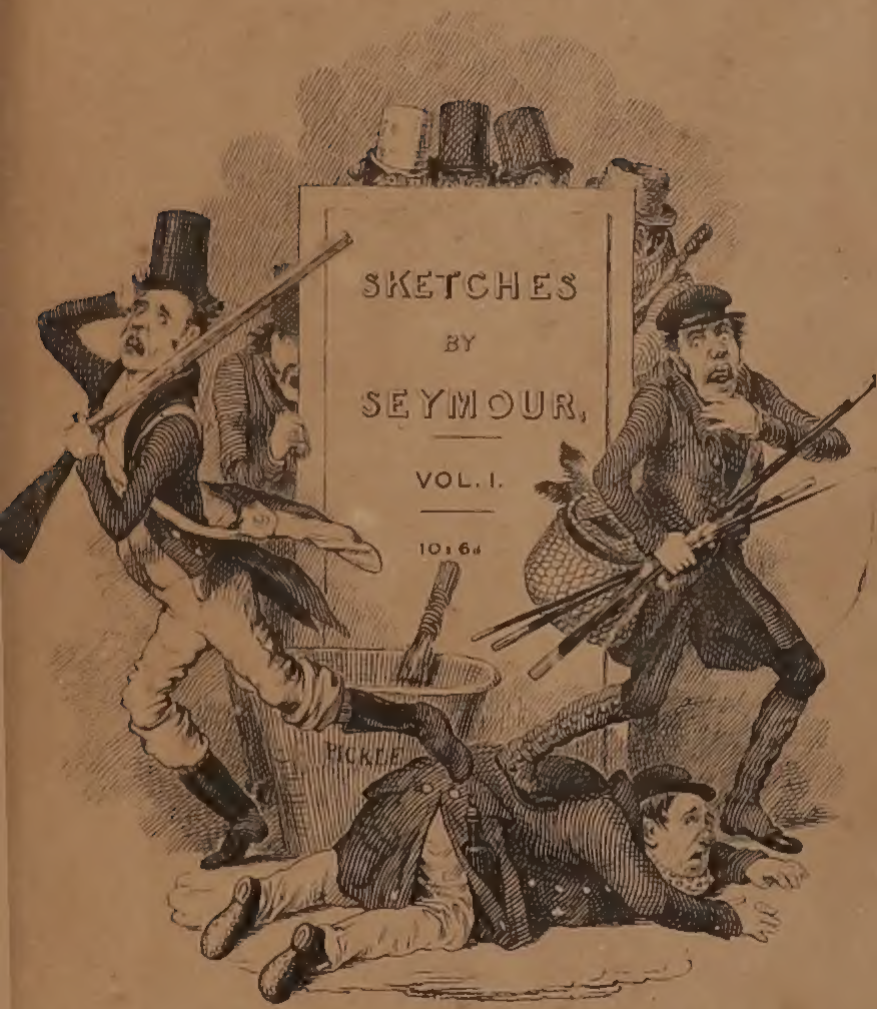
EX LIBRIS
FRANK·BREWER·BEMIS·
Three things to me
God lends,
Old Place, old books, old friends

Ex Libris
JOHN AND MARTHA DANIELS

5 vols

Exceptional state

5 vols. orig. cloth



Published by G. S. Tregear. 96 Cheapside London

Amas coming! vich vay? do tell me vich vay!

Published by C.S. Tregear, 96 Cheapside London.

Sketches by Seymour.

(No 2 Vol. 1.)

Now Jem, lets shew those gals. how we can row.

Published by G. S. Fogner. 96 Cheapside London

How does it fit behind! Oh beautiful, I've done wonders, and never trouble the tailors again I promise you

Published by G.S. Ireland 96 Cheapside London

Sketches by Seymour

V. 4. No. 1

Devilish turkey we've spoilt the brandy; how should we have kept the cold out else?

Published by C. S. Tregear 96 Cheapside London

Sketches by Seymour
N°5 Vol 1

Holoa ho hoy 'why don't you bring the boat'
Ho hoy! I want to come ashore, boat hoiey!!

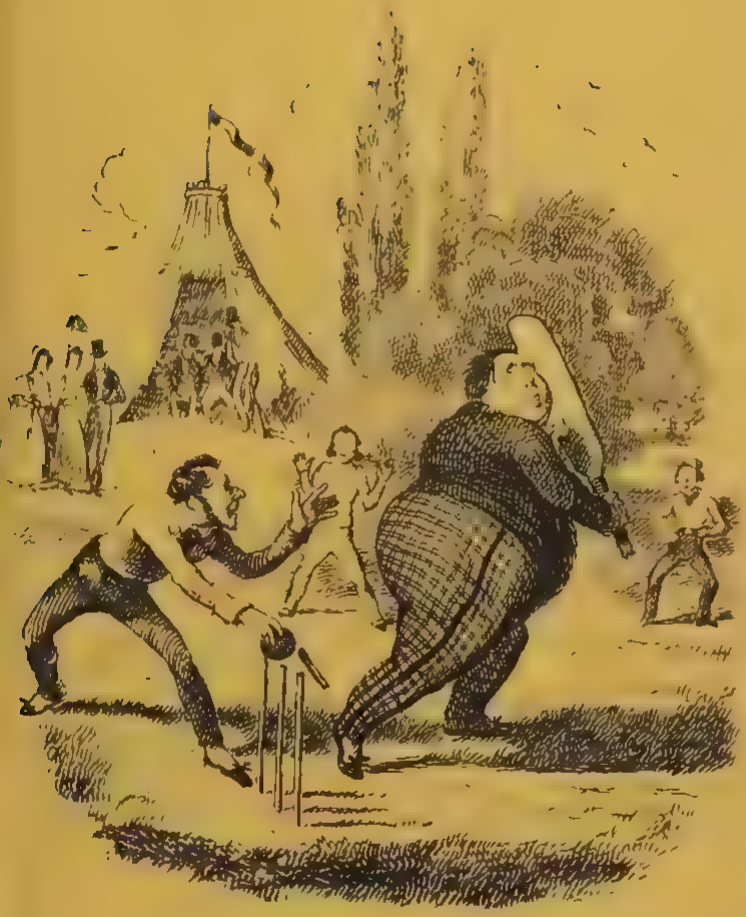
Published by G S Trigear 96 Cheapside London

You scoundrel! how dare you leave me all day out in the rain Lawks Sir, there's the times good anglers get the best Spot

Published by G S Tregear, 96 Cheapside London

How dare you . . . a loaded gun pointed at peoples viscera you beedy I don't know what you mean by wiserar I never shot a wiserar

Published by G S Tregear. 96 Cheapside London



Out!'
So don't fatigue yourself, I beg Sir'

Published by G S Tregear. 96 Cheapside London

Walked twenty miles over night up before peep of day again got a capital place, fell fast a sleep ride rose up to my knees my hat was changed, my pockets pick't, and a fish run away with my hook dreamt of being on a polar expedition and having my toes frozen

Published by J. Fraser 96 Chapside London

Sketches by Seymour.

You shall have the paper directly Sir, but really the Debates are so very interesting Oh, pray don't hurry Sir as only the scientific notices I care about

Published by G. S. Ingram 96 Cheapside London

A Musical Festival.

Yes, marm it's too fat for your stomach, I'm sure, marm

Published by C. S. Ingram 96 Cheapside London

Oh! vot a beautiful pheasant
Pop him into the bag, Tom

Published by G S Tregear, 96 Cheapside London

Sketches by Seymour.

No 13. Vol. 1

Strawberries & Cream !!!

Published by G S Tregear 96 Cheapside London

Seymour Who would not die for the glorious liberties we enjoy

Wilson Do me what Hearn shall lose a corbel of Richmond House

Published by S Fores 41 Piccadilly London

The Ghost Story.

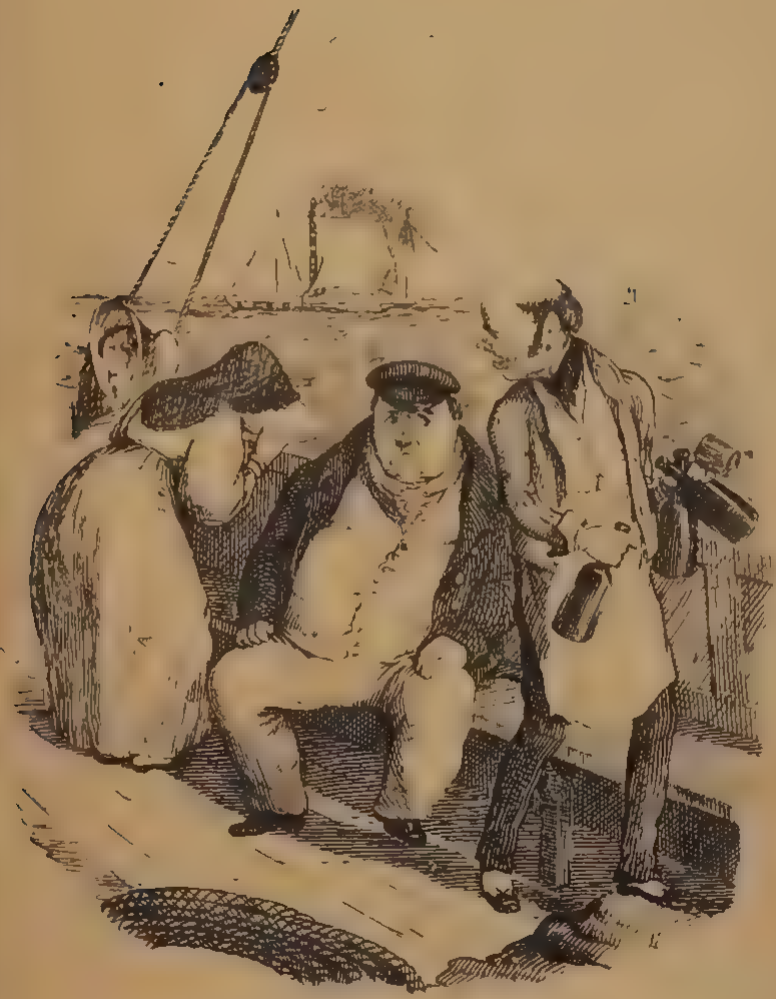
It this awful moment the Lady we are writing of beheld something white glide through the desolate apartment when all of a sudden a tremendous crash &c &c

Published by C.S Fraser 96 Chancery Lane

Modest Assurance

See Teddy I've broke your hoe!
Never mind it can be mended and that in a trice
or sure I'll want to borrow it again this afternoon

Published by G. S. Tregear 98 Cheapside London



Steaming it to Margate!

Steward bring me a glass of brandy as quick as you can

Published by G.S. Tregear 96 Cheapside London

The deep, deep Sea.

M^r Dobbs singing Hearts as warm as those above lie under the waters cold.

Published by C. S Tregear 96 Cheapside London

A Country Excursion.

Ee cawnt gow back, cause they locks the gates Well, can we go forward then? Noa ee cawnt cause the roads are under water.

Published by G S Tregear. 96 Cheapside London

A Pic Nic.

O lawkes, there's that nasty cow walking all over our dinner! Oh dear Oh dear; there goes his foot into the currant and raspberry pie.

Published by G S Tregear. 96 Cheapside London

*"Isay sir dy think we shall be in time for the hunt
Oh you neednt be so shy I rides my own hanimal*

Published by G.S. Tregear 96 Cheapside London

'I'm not fight with fistesses, its vulgar' but if he's a mind for any thing like a gemmen, here's my card!'

Published by G S Tregear 96 Cheapside London

Sketches by Seymour.

No 23 Vol I

This is a werry lonely spot, sir; I wonder you arn't a feard of being robb'd.

Published by G S Tregear, 96 Cheapside London

Sketches by Seymour.

N°24 Vol. 1

Fishing for Jack!!!

Published by T. S Ingear 96 Cheapside London.

A Declaration !!!

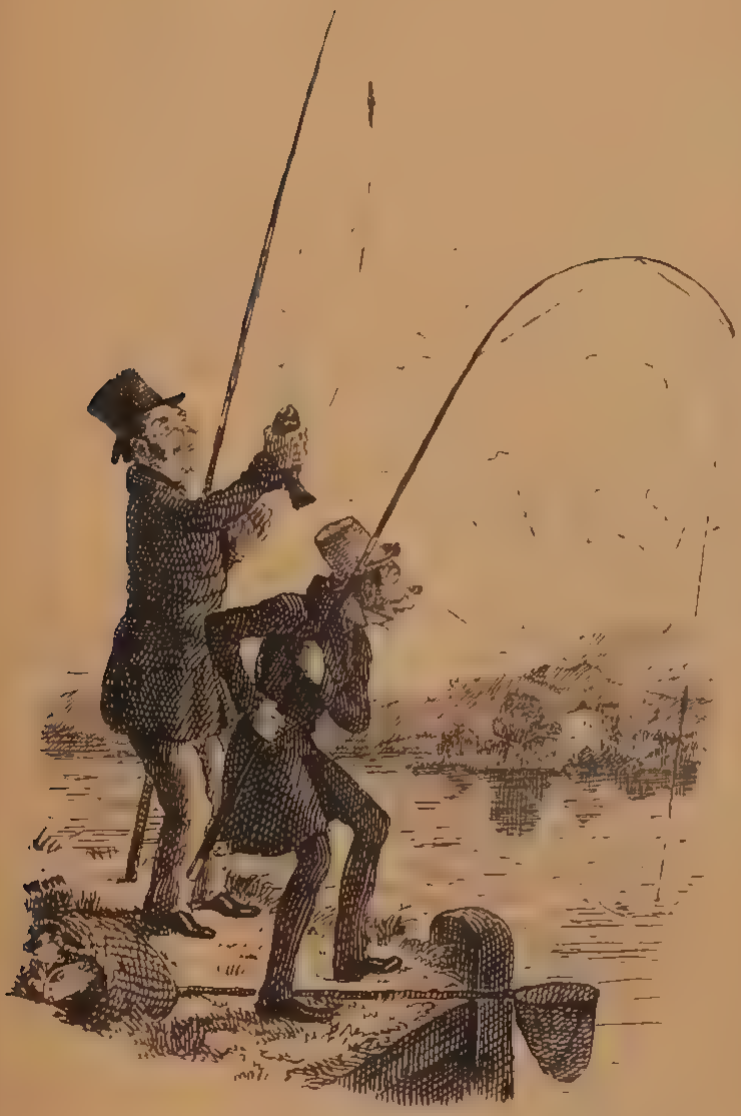
Published by G S Tregear. 96 Cheapside London

Fetch it Prim, fetch it, by vot a pervers. boy you are

Published by G.S Tregear 96 Cheapside London

A Country Practitioner about to serve an ejectment.

Published by G. S. Irvine, 96 Cheapside, London



Horse sport" by Jno Leech were nicked for once

Published by Thomas Hall Fleet Street London

Well Bill, d'ye get any bites over there.
No, but I'm afeard I shall soon have too many

Published by G S Tregear 96 Cheapside London

What can you say agin me you faggot!
Vy, ye'r a Scaly Feller, any how

Published by Fr S. Fraser 96 Cheapside London

Throw Physic to the dogs.

Whey ! Whey ! Whey ! I dont want to go hunting, if you do !

Published by I. S Tregear 96 Cheapside London

Practice

Out of the way Sugardips I am sure I shall hit him this time.

Published by G.S. Tregear 76 Chancery Lane

Sketches by Seymour.

N° 33 Vol 1

Nocturnal delight of a gothic cottage

Wh —oo—oo—oo's there

Published by C S Ingrey 96 Cheapside London

Sketches by Seymour.

N° 84 Vol. I

Oh, crikey, Bill! see vere your ugly dog is a shaking himself

Published by G S Ingram. 96 Strand London

Poor Simple's Foreign Adventure. N° 1

Oh 'ry vos I a midshipman to be wreckt on this desolate Island
I vos at home at Bloomsbury ' Oh that I had but to turn and embrace
my kind, good benevolent, and much respected Grandmother

Published by G S Tregear, 96 Cheapside London

Peter Simple's Foreign Adventure. N°2

Here I am married to the only daughter of the great chief who would have roasted me with the rest of our crew, had I not given a joyful consent. Oh I wonder if I ever shall get home & be married to Miss Wiggins?

Published by G S Fregeur 96 Cheapside, London